Cannes Film Festival Experience 19 – 21 May 2009

The "Hautes Vacances Cannes Film Festival Experience" is designed for a limited number of clients attending the Hautes Vacances Life Ball Experience. We have organized for tickets to exclusive film premieres as well as access to the "V.I.P ROOM" and its spectacular VIP parties with world-class music entertainment and world famous guests (Kelly Rowland, Miss Kittin, JayZ, Tima T and Diddy have performed in 2008).

You will be staying in a boutique hotel in the heart of Cannes and be in touch with A-list celebrities at the parties and premieres you choose to attend with Hautes Vacances. You can choose how many premieres you would like to see and how many parties you would like to attend. We can organize VIP passes to almost all the parties.

About the Cannes International Film Festival:

The Festival de Cannes is the most important film event in the world, representing the entire spectrum of the motion-picture industry. The Festival de Cannes reflects the dual nature of cinema at the crossroads of art and industry, and favours both cinema revelations and professional encounters. The Festival, moreover, develops actions in support of cinematic creation throughout the world. Twenty years after having created the Caméra d'Or, the prize awarded to the best first film, all selections combined, the Festival created in 1998 the Cinéfondation to accompany young filmmakers along the various stages of their creative careers, from their projects to the making of their films. The role of the Festival de Cannes has thus grown rich over the course of the years to the rhythm of the evolution of cinema itself: selecting and promoting films and artists, welcoming professionals, implementing new sets of dynamics in support of creation... in a word, serving the cinema in all its dimensions.

19 – 21 May 2009

Cannes

Arrival in Cannes in the morning either directly from Vienna or via a 2 day shopping spree in Milan/Italy. You will have the choice of staying in a boutique hotel, a bed & breakfast or an apartment, depending on your individual budget.

After arrival in Cannes the Hautes Vacances guests will meet at the Carlton Hotel lobby for a refreshing drink and light lunch. After lunch we will have some time to wonder around the Promenade de la Croisette which stretches along the shore of the Mediterranean Sea before getting ready for your first film premiere this evening. After dinner together we will attend a film premiere and head to the V.I.P.ROOM afterwards for a breathtaking party among the stars.

On the second day and depending on how hard you have been partying, the Hautes Vacances crew can arrange for you to travel to Monaco or St.Tropez with its fancy Beach Clubs. After a day in the sun the Hautes Vacances crew is booked in for another dinner at a hip restaurant in Cannes. After dinner, you can choose to attend another film premiere and VIP party or explore Cannes individually.

On the next day most Hautes Vacances Travelers will make their journey home, but we can also organize an extended stay in Cannes, St.Tropez or at the Axel Hotel in Barcelona/Spain.
